

100% Happy?

Our Returns and Exchanges Policy:

We are sure that you'll love your new lingerie from Storm in a D-Cup, in fact, we guarantee it!

If you're not 100% satisfied with the items you purchased, we offer a full refund, store credit or exchange, provided you return the items unworn, unwashed, in original condition and with all labels intact. Items must be returned within 30 days of the date you receive them.

We understand that every bra you buy in your size will not fit in the same way, so we don't charge you any additional postage if you need to try a different style or size. To speed up an exchange, you can call or email us to let us know what you would like instead so we can either reserve it, or order it in for you.

Please Remember:

We accept no responsibility for returns that are sent by non-traceable postage methods and are not received. Unfortunately without the items we cannot issue an exchange or refund. We suggest you send your returns using a traceable method.

All returned items must be received undamaged, unworn, unwashed, with all the labels attached and in any original packaging within 30 days of you receiving your order. We reserve the right to refuse a return if items do not comply to our returns policy. Refused items will be posted back to you and additional postage will be charged.
